

Golf camp for women from July 9

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Mohali: A one month long free golf camp for women's will begin from July 9 at the premises of Mohali Golf Range (MGR), Sector 65 Mohali.

The camp will be open to both the members and non-members. Golf equipment during the camp shall be made available free of cost by the range to the participants. Besides this, no coaching fee would be charged from the participants.

Divulging the details, Vini Mahajan, president of Mohali Golf Range, said "free golf camp for the women has received a tremendous response last, as near about 50 women ranging from the age of 10-60 years have confirmed their participation. We are expecting the number of participants to be quite higher this year".

Meanwhile, registrations for the camp have been opened for the aspiring participants. Interested participants can register themselves at the reception of the range.

The camp will be conducted five days a week (Monday-Friday) from 10:30 am to 11:30 am. A putting competition will also be conducted for the beginners during the camp. Preetinder Kaur and Shalini Kahlon will promote the Olympic sport of golf among through the camp.

The range has got accolades also to its name. Recently, an 11-year-old Ira Jamwal, a product of the Mohali Golf Range has won a prize at the International IJGA Tournament in USA.

Month-long golf camp for women from July 9

TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

MOHALI, JULY 5

The Mohali Golf Range will organise a month-long free coaching camp for women from July 9.

The camp will be conducted five days a week from 10:30 am to 11:30 am and participants will be given lessons on basics of golf, including swing, chipping and putting, along with bunker shots, the organisers said here on Thursday.

The camp will be open to both the members and non-members, the organisers added.

A putting competition will also be conducted for the beginners, and advanced ladies will be taken to play on the Mohali Golf Range course as a part of the camp, which will be conducted by Preetinder Kaur.

"During the camp, golf equipment and balls would be made available free of cost to the participants. Besides, no coaching fee, greens fee, etc.. will be charged from the participants," said Vini Mahajan, the Additional Chief Secretary of Department of Housing and Urban Development and president of the Mohali Golf Range.

The interested golfers can register for the camp at the venue, the organisers said.