

Deposit forms for PMAY till October 3

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Mohali: Department of housing and urban development in conjunction with local government department, Punjab government has decided to accept application forms under Punjab Shehri Awas Yojna (PSAY) till October 3 in view of public interest.

This would compensate the inconvenience caused to prospective applicants on account of Dussehra holiday on September 30, which was the last date for submission of applications before.

Department of local government has already directed its 163 urban local bodies (ULBs) to accept applications on October 3, the working day next to October 29 as October 30, October 1, and October 2 were holidays on account of Saturday, Sunday and Gandhi Jayanti.

Demand survey launched on September 1 under the PSAY has attracted 31,075 applications till date. The scheme is being promoted through 163 municipal committees and six urban development authorities in the state.

Free and affordable housing has evoked maximum response. The scheme has attracted 20,797 applications. The applicants under scheduled castes and backward classes have applied for allotment of free houses and economically weaker sections other than SC/BC for subsidized houses.

Another aspect of PSAY offers cash subsidy of upto Rs 1.50 lakh and has attracted 8,888 applications so far. The amount is to be utilized by the beneficiaries for converting their kuchha house into pucha house or for expansion of their house. For availing subsidy on interest on loan for construction, only 1,390 applications have been received till date.

Trachure 30-1-77

Housing for poor: Last date extended

CHANDIGARH, SEPTEMBER 29

The state government has extended the last date for accepting applications for Punjab Shehri Awas Yojana.

Now, the Department of Housing and Urban Development, in association with the Local Government Department, will accept the applications till October 3 instead of September 30 — the deadline fixed earlier.

“This would compensate prospective applicants for the inconvenience caused on account of the Dasehra holiday,” Additional Chief Secretary, Housing and Urban Development, Vini Mahajan, said here on Friday. The Department of Local Government has directed all its 163 civic bodies to accept applications on October 3. — TNS

Shehri Awas Yojna deadline extended

Treatment 3 30-1-17

Mohali: The Department of Housing and Urban Development, has decided to accept Punjab Shehri Awas Yojna (PSAY) applications on October 3, 2017, to compensate the inconvenience caused to the potential applicants on account of Dasehra holiday on September 30, 2017, the last date for submission of applications. The Department of Local Government has directed all Urban Local Bodies (ULBs) to accept applications on October 3, the next working day after three consecutive holidays. The demand survey under Punjab Shehri Awas Yojna (PMAY) has received 31,075 applications till date. The scheme is being promoted through 163 municipal committees and six urban development authorities in the state. Maximum applications have been received from Amritsar, Ferozepur, Jalandhar, Kapurthala; Ludhiana, Hoshiarpur, followed by Ropar, Nawan Shahar, Faridkot and Mukatsar. TNS