MOHALI, MARCH 1

To listen to grievances of the public and other collaborators, PUDA and all special development authorities, including GMADA, GLADA, PDA, JDA, ADA and BDA, conducted grievance redressal camps at their respective offices today.

As per sources, a total of 204 applicants turned up in these camps with issues pertaining to payments, development works in their areas and complaints against some promoters.

In the camp organised at the PUDA Bhawan, Mohali, GMADA Chief Administrator Ravi Bhagat, along with senior officials of the department, heard the complaints related to allottees of the land pooling scheme of Sectors 76 to 80, Preet City project and other sectors, having problems pertaining to payment, allotment and development issues.
