Punjab development authorities to e-auction properties from 1 Aug

STATESMAN NEWS SERVICE
CHANDIGARH, 31 JULY

Punjab's development authorities will hold e-auction of their properties from 1 August.

An official spokesperson said continuing the tradition of holding e-auction every month, Punjab Urban Development Authority (PUDA) and other special development authorities including Greater Mohali Area Development Authority (GMADA), Patiala Development Authority (PDA), Jalandhar Development Authority (JDA), GLADA, Amritsar Development Authority (ADA) and Bathinda Development Authority (BDA) would put up various properties for e-auction.

Divulging the details, a spokesperson of housing and urban development department revealed that e-auction would start at 9 a.m. on 1 August, 2019.

While, e-auction for properties under jurisdiction of GMADA, GLADA, BDA, ADA and JDA would conclude on 13 August, and auction of properties under jurisdiction of PDA would conclude on 14 August.

He said the Authorities are giving an opportunity to those who are interested in purchasing properties of the nature of industrial, commercial or residential. Those looking for an industrial plot will have the chance to own the same near Chandigarh as GMADA is offering IT industrial plots situated in its IT City project near the Mohali International Airport besides offering industrial plots situated in Rajpura.

"Apart from this, institutional properties such as two hotel sites located in IT City, SAS Nagar and one in Sector 32-A, Chandigarh Road, Ludhiana, a petrol pump site in New Chandigarh, a commercial chunk site of SAS Nagar and a school site & commercial chunk site both situated in New Urban Estate, Batala would be available for bidding in the e-auction.", he added.

Smaller commercial establishments booths, double storey shops, built-up booths, SCSs, workshop sites and residential plots have also been listed for bidding.

The spokesperson said the sites and plots being offered in the e-auction are located in different cities across the State, so the bidders would have the choice to own the property of their interest as well as location. He informed that for more details www.puda.e-auctions.in can be accessed.

The spokesperson said the e-auction would be successful like the previous auction conducted in the month of July, in which the Authorities cumulatively had earned revenue amounting approximately to Rs 72 crore.
